

Vuzix Issues Letter to Shareholders

Company highlights 2018 business developments and outlook

ROCHESTER, NY, July 05, 2018 – Vuzix® Corporation (NASDAQ: VUZI), ("Vuzix" or, the "Company"), a leading supplier of Smart Glasses and Augmented Reality (AR) technologies and products for the consumer and enterprise markets, is pleased to announce that the Company has issued a letter to shareholders to review recent events and provide an outlook of what Vuzix expects to achieve in the near-term.

Key points in the Shareholder Letter include that the Company expects continued momentum in its business developments and that 2018 revenues will exceed 2017 revenues. The Company began 2018 with the successful unveiling of the award-winning Vuzix Blade Smart Glasses ‘powered by Amazon Alexa’ at CES and Mobile World Congress and is building upon the strong interest and response from partners and customers.

Factors Expected to Boost 2018 Revenue:

- Over 750 M300 Smart Glasses pilots and countless new ones launching
- Existing customers placing follow-on orders as pilot programs expand in size and/or convert to full rollouts
- Dozens of customers and VIP partners have already surpassed their 2017 M300 order totals, with many more expected to surpass 2017 order totals by midyear
- Broadening global sales footprint with additional M300 regulatory agency certifications in new geographic regions, including Eastern Europe, South America and Asia
- Integration of Amazon and Oracle cloud-based analytics platforms into Vuzix M300 Smart Glasses
- Anticipated new revenue streams reflect the Toshiba AR100 and Vuzix Blade, plus a growing number of OEM engagements and the provision of engineering services

The factors noted above are just some of the reasons the Company is confident in the outlook for 2018 and beyond. To read the complete shareholder letter, please click <https://ir.vuzix.com/shareholder-letter>
